Communications from the City Administrator

City Administrator James Finchum reported he has researched street name change as asked by Board. Most of the surrounding counties does the same as Newport: request goes to the Planning Commission and City Council. At other counties, request is submitted to 911 and, if approved, the request goes to the Planning Commission and City Council. The larger cities have a committee that is appointed by City Council. All have filing fees from $250- $500. Mayor
Dykes asked the Board what they would like to do. Alderman Hansel suggested to look at upgrades. Mr. Finchum suggested to make no decisions at this meeting but to get with him individually to let him know what they would like.
